Numb. 12784.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday September 5, to Saturday September 9, 1786.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 6th Day of September, 1786,

PRESENT,

The KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

HIS Majeſty in Council was this Day pleaſed to order, That the Parliament which ſtands prorogued to Thurſday, the Fourteenth Day of this Inſtant September, ſhould be further prorogued to Thurſday, the Twenty-ſixth Day of October next.

This Day the Right Honorable John Foſter, Speaker of the Houſe of Commons of Ireland, and the Right Honorable John Beresford, Firſt Commiſſioner of His Majeſty's Revenue of Ireland, were, by His Majeſty's Command, ſworn of His Majeſty's Moſt Honorable Privy Council, and took their Places at the Board accordingly.

His Majeſty having been graciouſly pleaſed to deliver the Cuſtody of the Seals of the Duchy and County Palatine of Lancaſter to the Right Honorable Charles Lord Hawkeſbury, the Oath of Chancellor of the ſaid Duchy was this Day, by His Majeſty's Command, adminiſtered to His Lordſhip.

His Majeſty having thought fit to revoke His Order in Council, bearing Date the Fifth Day of March, 1784, appointing a Committee of Privy Council for the Conſideration of all Matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations, and to declare the ſaid Committee diſſolved, has been pleaſed to appoint a new Committee of Privy Council for the Buſineſs above-mentioned, to conſiſt of the following Members, viz.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury.
The Firſt Lord Commiſſioner of the Treaſury.
The Firſt Lord Commiſſioner of the Admiralty.
His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.
The Chancellor and Under Treaſurer of the Exchequer, and
The Speaker of the Houſe of Commons.

And alſo of ſuch of the Lords of His Majeſty's Moſt Honorable Privy Council as ſhall hold any of the following Offices, viz.

The Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaſter.
The Paymaſter or Paymaſters General of His Majeſty's Forces.
The Treaſurer of His Majeſty's Navy.
The Maſter of His Majeſty's Mint.

And His Majeſty was at the ſame Time pleaſed to order, That

The Speaker of the Houſe of Commons of Ireland, and ſuch Perſons as ſhall hold Offices in His Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland, and ſhall be Members of His Majeſty's Moſt Honorable Privy Council in this Kingdom, ſhould be Members of the ſaid Committee.

And alſo that Lord Frederick Campbell,
Robert Lord Biſhop of London,
Lord Grantley,
Sir Lloyd Kenyon, Maſter of the Rolls,
The Honorable Thomas Harley,
The Honorable Sir Joſeph Yorke, K. B.
Sir John Goodricke, Bart.
William Eden, Eſq;
James Grenville, Eſq; and
Thomas Orde, Eſq;

ſhould be Members of the ſaid Committee.

And that the Right Honorable Lord Hawkeſbury, Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaſter, and in his Abſence, the Right Honorable William Wyndham Grenville, be Preſident of the ſaid Committee.

St. James's, September 9.

THE following Addreſs of the Biſhop of London, the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's, and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, has been preſented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Lincoln, attended by the Reverend Dr. Douglas, Dr. Jeffreys, Dr. Bell, Dr. Horſley, Stephen Eaton, A. M. Dr. Hamilton, Dr. Jackſon, Dr. Markham, James Trebeck, James Robinſon Hayward, Richard Snow, George Stepney Townley, Owen Perrot Edwards, and Henry Fly, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop of London, the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's, and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, impreſſed with a deep Senſe of the many and invaluable Bleſſings which we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, the great Advantage which Religion has ever received from your Countenance and Protection, and the conſtant Support which Morality has derived from your Example, cannot but feel ourſelves particularly intereſted in the Safety of your Majeſty's Life; and we beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere Congratulations on its late providential Preſervation.

We have returned our Thanks to God for this Inſtance of His Goodneſs to your Majeſty; and we ſhall not fail continually to pray to God, that that Life, which He has thus ſignally protected, may long be continued to your Majeſty in uninterrupted Health and Proſperity.

[Signed by the Biſhop and 54 of the Clergy.]

[Price Seven-Pence.]

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Church and Dioceſe of Glouceſter, has been preſented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Glouceſter, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs the Biſhop, Dean, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Church and Dioceſe of Glouceſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Church and Dioceſe of Glouceſter, beg Leave to expreſs, before your Majeſty, our devout and grateful Senſe of the Divine Goodneſs which hath been ſo eminently diſplayed in the Preſervation of your Royal Perſon from an Attempt on your Sacred Life.

It was a moſt ſeaſonable Relief to our Minds, when informed of your Majeſty's Danger and Deliverance, to be at the ſame Time authentically aſſured, that the infamous Attack was made, not in conſequence of any pre-concerted Plan, or with the Privity of others, but by one Perſon only, and that Perſon evidently under the Influence of a diſordered Imagination. We truſt and believe there is not a Subject throughout your Majeſty's Dominions, who has the ſober Poſſeſſion of his Underſtanding, that does not heartily join with his Fellow Citizens in expreſſing his Abhorrence of the Attempt itſelf, and in the ſincereſt Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from it.

It ſhall be our Part, as it is our Duty, to cultivate in thoſe committed to our Charge, the Principles of Loyalty and Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government; and to enforce Obedience to thoſe Principles by the Sanctions of that pure and holy Religion which your Majeſty hath uniformly ſupported by your Authority, and adorned by your Example.

May the Piety and Virtue of your Majeſty and our moſt amiable and gracious Queen be attended with an Increaſe of domeſtic Happineſs and Public Proſperity! May your Lives be ſtill preſerved from all the Machinations of ſecret Treachery and open Violence! And may the Honours of your Crown, after being long poſſeſſed by your Majeſty, be tranſmitted in your Illuſtrious Houſe, with undiminiſhed Luſtre, to our lateſt Poſterity.

[Signed by the Biſhop and 31 of the Clergy.]

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop and Clergy of the Dioceſe and Church of Hereford, has been preſented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Hereford, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop and Clergy of the Dioceſe and Church of Hereford.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop and Clergy of the Dioceſe and Church of Hereford, humbly beg Leave to expreſs the real and heart-felt Joy with which we are filled on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from that Danger which lately threatened your Sacred Perſon. Feeling as Subjects of this envied Nation, the happy Effects of your Majeſty's mild and equal Government, we cannot ſee ſo deſperate an Attempt to deſtroy that gracious Fountain from whence they flow, without manifeſting our utmoſt Abhorrence of ſo foul an Act. Permit us, at the ſame Time, to declare, that to our late Thankſgivings our Prayers will in future be added, earneſtly imploring the King of Kings to protect your Majeſty from every Aſſault either of malicious Wickedneſs or frantic Violence; and to grant to your Majeſty (the Ornament and Guardian of that pure Religion which He hath implanted among us) a long, ſecure and happy Reign, in the Hearts of a free and grateful People.

[Signed by the Biſhop and 50 of the Clergy.]

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Bangor, has been preſented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Bangor, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Bangor.

MAY it pleaſe your Majeſty to permit us, your moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Bangor, humbly to preſent to your Majeſty our ſincere Congratulations on the providential Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life from the great Danger to which it was lately expoſed.

We are ſo truly ſenſible of the manifold Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and equal Government, that the Account of ſo daring an Attempt on the Sacred Perſon of our moſt Gracious Sovereign filled our Hearts with the deepeſt Indignation.

We pray to God to grant your Majeſty a long and happy Life, and to impreſs on the Minds of all your Subjects a due Senſe of this late Inſtance of His great Goodneſs to theſe Kingdoms.

As Miniſters of the Goſpel of Chriſt, we cannot omit this Opportunity of expreſſing the Joy and Satisfaction we feel, from the bright Example which your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort afford in every Chriſtian Grace and Virtue, well knowing how much it muſt tend to a general Reformation of Manners; and we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will be unwearied in our Endeavours to inculcate the Duties of our Holy Religion, and to promote Peace, good Order, and a firm Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, in all Places where we are appointed to ſerve.

Bangor, Auguſt 28, 1786.

[Signed by the Biſhop and 49 of the Clergy.]

The following Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Town of Eaſt Retford, has been preſented to the King by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, High Steward of the ſaid Town: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Town of Eaſt Retford in the County of Nottingham.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of your Majeſty's Town of Eaſt Retford in the County of Nottingham, beg Leave to approach your Sacred Preſence with every Sentiment of Gratitude, Regard and Attachment.

The Emotions of Anxiety and Wretchedneſs excited in all Deſcriptions of People by a late execrable Attempt againſt your Majeſty's Perſon, forcibly demonſtrate the ineſtimable Advantages ariſing from thoſe exemplary Virtues which have ſo eminently characterized your Majeſty's Reign.

May Providence ſtill continue to ſhower Bleſſings on a free People by the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life.

May you live long with increaſing Felicity, to ſuſtain that glorious Fabrick, that envied Conſtitution, which, foſtered by your paternal Care, is equally calculated to promote the Happineſs, and to aſcertain the Rights of Mankind.

Given under our Common Seal, this Twenty-ninth Day of Auguſt, 1786.

The following Addreſs of the Grand Jury of the County of Radnor, has been preſented to the King by Earl of Oxford, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Grand Jury of the County of Radnor.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Grand Jury of the County of Radnor, humbly approach your Royal Preſence with our moſt ſincere Congratulations on an Event ſo providential, manifeſted in the ſignal Deliverance of your Majeſty from the late daring Attempt on your Royal Perſon.

Highly ſenſible of the great Bleſſing we enjoy under your moſt gracious Government, and the ineſtimable Value of a Life ſo important to the Proſperity of your People, we cannot fail being greatly affected with the Thoughts of the National Calamity which would have been produced by ſo deſperate an Attempt, to the unſpeakable Affliction of your People.

Impelled by Duty and Gratitude, as well as Inclination, we are happy to embrace every Opportunity of expreſſing our unfeigned Aſſurance of Duty and Affection to your Sacred Perſon, and adding our moſt fervent Prayers that your Reign may be long and proſperous, and the Bleſſings we now enjoy tranſmitted to the lateſt Poſterity.

[Signed by the Foreman and the reſt of the Grand Jury.]

The following Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Hertford, has been preſented to the King by Jeremiah Milles, Eſq; Sheriff, attended by Lord Viſcount Grimſton and William Plumer, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County, John Calvert, Eſq; jun. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the Borough of Hertford, and Major Wortham, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Hertford.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Hertford, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our unfeigned and moſt cordial Congratulations on your Majeſty's late providential Eſcape, and with Hearts truly thankful to the Almighty for His Preſervation of your Majeſty's moſt invaluable Life.

Permit us to aſſure your Majeſty, that it will be the conſtant Prayer of your faithful Subjects of this County, that your Perſon and Government may ever remain ſecure from all publick and private Enemies, and that you may continue long to reign over a free and happy People.

Signed at the Requeſt of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Hertford, at a Meeting aſſembled by Publick Adverſiſement, at the Shirehouſe, on the Fourth Day of September, 1786.

Jeremiah Milles, Sheriff.

The following Addreſs of His Majeſty's Subjects of the County of Northampton, has been preſented to the King by Iſaac Pocock, Eſq; Sheriff, attended by Sir James Langham, Bart. and Thomas Powys, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects of the County of Northampton, beg Leave humbly to offer our moſt ſincere and warmeſt Congratulations on the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life from the late atrocious Attempt on your Sacred Perſon.

We poſſeſs Minds and Hearts truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſtys Reign; and moſt ardently pray, that the Almighty Power, who reſcued your Majeſty from the late imminent Danger, will for many Years inſure the Safety of Him, who ſtands in the deareſt as well as the higheſt Relation to us, and prolong that Life, on which the Felicity of your Subjects ſo greatly depends.

[Signed by 54 Perſons.]

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Bath, has been preſented to the King by Lord Viſcount Bayham, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Bath.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Bath, in Common-Council aſſembled, beg Leave to offer our ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy and providential Eſcape from a moſt alarming Attempt lately made upon your Majeſty's Life.

Impreſſed with the higheſt Senſe of Duty and Reſpect for your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government, we chearfully join with our fellow Subjects in the General Tribute of Gratitude and Thankſgiving for the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life from ſuch imminent Danger. The more we reflect on the poſſible Conſequences of the Attempt, the greater Cauſe we ſee to be thankful to Divine Providence for His gracious Interpoſition in preſerving a Life, on which the Welfare and Proſperity of theſe Kingdoms ſo eſſentially depend.

May the ſame Almighty Power conſtantly guard and defend your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, and may your Majeſty long and proſperouſly reign over a free, happy and affectionate People.

Given under our Common Seal the Twenty-ninth Day of Auguſt, in the Twenty-ſixth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Maſters, and Capital Burgeſſes of the City of Wells, has been preſented to the King by Alexander Popham, Eſq; Recorder of the ſaid City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THE Mayor, Maſters, and Capital Burgeſſes of the City of Wells, being deeply ſenſible of the Bleſſings they enjoy under your Majeſty's benign and juſt Government, and, conſcious of a zealous and ſteady Attachment to your Perſon and Family, are ſolicitous (amidſt encreaſing Teſtimonies of the public Affection) to offer to your Majeſty's Acceptance their moſt humble and ſincere Congratulations on the Failure of the late dreadful Attempt upon your Life.

Long may your Majeſty live to protect and bleſs theſe your Kingdoms, and to enjoy the ſupreme Happineſs of your Peoples Love; ſurrounded by ſuch a Guard, you could have been ſubject to no ſuch Violence but from the Suggeſtions of a frantic and diſordered Mind.

Given under our Common Seal, this Thirtieth Day of Auguſt, 1786.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Dovor, has been preſented to the King by Thomas Bateman Lane, Eſq; Mayor of the ſaid Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Dovor, in the County of Kent, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Dovor aforeſaid, beg Leave to offer our moſt ſincree Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the horrid Deed of Aſſaſſination, intended againſt your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon.

May the Divine Providence, who guarded your Majeſty in the late Moment of imminent Danger, vouchſafe to grant to your Majeſty a long and happy Reign over a free and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal, the Thirty-firſt Day of Auguſt, in the Twenty-ſixth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Free Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Maldon, has been preſented to the King by John Strutt, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, and Lieutenant-Colonel Strutt, of the Weſt Eſſex Militia, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Free Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Maldon, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our unfeigned Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from the Hand of a mad Aſſaſſin, and with Hearts full of Gratitude to the Almighty for protecting your Royal Perſon in the Moment of Danger. The horrid Attempt ſtrongly indicated a wild and diſordered Mind, as your Majeſty's known and paternal Goodneſs to your Subjects muſt otherwiſe have diſarmed the moſt profligate and abandoned.

May your Majeſty long live to continue the Bleſſings of your mild and equal Government to a free and loyal People.

[Signed by 115 Perſons.]

The following Addreſs of the Guildſtewards and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Calne has been preſented to the King by James Townſend, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Guildſtewards and Burgeſſes of your very ancient and loyal Borough of Calne, aſſembled in the Guildhall of the ſaid Borough, requeſt the Honor of being admitted, among other Corporations, to expreſs to your Majeſty the Alarm we felt, at the Danger to which your Majeſty's Sacred Life has been expoſed, through the Infatuation of a Perſon, whom Inſanity rendered inſenſible of every moral Obligation, and the Satisfaction we feel in being aſſured of your Majeſty's Safety, which, under the Bleſſing of God, we owe to your Majeſty's own Calmneſs and Reſolution.

We cannot yield to any in teſtifying the warmeſt Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, founded upon every Principle of Duty and Gratitude; and we ſhall never ceaſe to offer up our Prayers to Almighty God for the Preſervation of a Life ſo beneficial to Mankind, as well as ſo eſſential to the Happineſs of all your Majeſty's Subjects, and the general Welfare of the Britiſh Empire.

Given under our Common Seal, this Thirtieth Day of Auguſt, in the Year of our Lord 1786.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Shaftſbury, has been preſented to the King by James Atchiſon, Eſq; Mayor of the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The moſt humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Shaftſbury, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Capital Burgeſſes of the ſaid Borough, in Common Council aſſembled, being deeply impreſſed with the Horror at the late very alarming Attempt on your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, think ourſelves in Duty bound to ſo good and affectionate a Sovereign, to approach the Throne with our moſt unfeigned and heartfelt Congratulations for your Majeſty's happy and providential Eſcape.

And, with all Humility, we beg Leave to ſhew our Loyalty, in expreſſing our Steadineſs and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, being truly ſenſible of the invaluable Bleſſings which we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign, and which we hope and pray may be long and happy.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough, at the New Guildhall, in Common Council aſſembled, the 26th Day of Auguſt, 1786.

Ja. Atchiſon, Mayor.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, has been preſented to the King by the Honourable Lieutenant General Vaughan, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne, and offer to your Majeſty our warmeſt Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Eſcape from the late daring Attempt on your Royal Perſon.

Permit us, Sire, to aſſure you of our fervent Prayer, that your Majeſty may long, very long, enjoy a happy Reign over a free and united People.

Given under our Common Seal, the Twenty-eighth Day of Auguſt, in the Twenty-ſixth Year of your Reign.

The following Addreſſes of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of Leeds, and of the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgeſſes of Doncaſter, have been preſented to the King by the Marquis of Carmarthen: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Leeds in the County of York, beg Leave, with the utmoſt Duty and Affection, to expreſs our our unfeigned Joy upon your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the late alarming Attempt made upon your Sacred Perſon.

Impreſſed with a grateful and affectionate Senſe of the invaluable Bleſſings which we and all your Subjects enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, we add our ſincere and fervent Prayers, that your Majeſty may long continue to reign over a free and happy People.

Given under our Common Seal, this Fourth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, 1786.

John Calverley, Mayor.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Doncaſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Capital Burgeſſes of your ancient Borough of Doncaſter, beg Leave to expreſs our ſincere Congratulations to your Majeſty, on your happy and providential Eſcape from the late horrid Attempt upon your Life.

We conſider the Happineſs and Welfare of this Country as ſo intimately connected with your Majeſty's perſonal Safety, that whatever endangers that muſt neceſſarily excite in our Minds the moſt alarming Apprehenſions; and we moſt ardently wiſh, that your Majeſty may long continue in Health and Security the Guardian and Protector of our Rights and Liberties, and receive in Return every loyal and grateful Teſtimony of Affection from a free, united, and proſperous People.

In Witneſs whereof we have this Thirty-firſt Day of Auguſt, in the Year of our Lord, 1786, cauſed our Common Seal to be hereunto ſet and affixed.

The following Addreſs having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Rutland, Lord Lieutenant of the Kingdom of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have by him been preſented to the King; Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin.

WE, your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, impreſſed with Sentiments of the moſt ſincere Affection and Gratitude for the many Bleſſings we enjoy, in common with the Reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects, and conſcious of your Majeſty's gracious Attention to the general Intereſts of Literature, as well as to the Happineſs of all your People, beg Leave to lay at your Majeſty's Feet our moſt unfeigned Congratulations on the late Interpoſition of Divine Providence, manifeſted in the Preſervation of your Royal Perſon.

We think ourſelves, illuſtrious Sire! peculiarly called upon in the preſent Seaſon of general Exultation, to teſtify the Share we take in the public Joy; and we pray that the ſame good Providence, which has lately guarded your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon from the Danger of an horrid Aſſaſſination, may ever continue its Gracious and Almighty Protection; and that, having granted your Majeſty a long and happy Reign over a grateful and united People, it may tranſmit to your Deſcendants your Majeſty's Royal Virtues, together with your Crown, and preſerve them with undiminiſhed Luſtre to the lateſt Poſterity.

Given under the public Seal of the College, this Twenty-eighth Day of Auguſt, 1786.

The Nine following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Recorder and Chief Burgeſſes of the Borough of Beaumaris, beg Leave to expreſs to your Majeſty our ſincere Joy, at the Failure of the late daring Attempt on your Majeſty's Royal Perſon.

We feel too much the Value and Importance of your Majeſty's Life to the Welfare of your People, not to be impreſſed with a ſenſible Alarm at any Incident, which could in any Degree threaten its Termination.

Allow us, Royal Sir, to offer an unfeigned Aſſurance of our Affection and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and our ſincereſt Wiſhes, that your Majeſty's Reign may continue long and happy over a free and united People.

[Signed by 21 Perſons.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn in the County of Cornwall, beg Leave to teſtify our unfeigned Joy, and to expreſs the Gratitude we entertain towards the Supreme Diſpoſer of all Events, for His gracious Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life lately endangered, a Life ſo highly valuable, and ſo important to the Intereſt and Proſperity of this Country.

Given under our Hands, and the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough, the Twenty-ſixth Day of Auguſt, 1786.

[Signed by 119 Perſons.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Aſſiſtants of the Town and Borough of Tiverton, in the County of Devon, ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we have enjoyed under the Protection of your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Reign, and truly thankful to the gracious Hand of Providence for your happy Deliverance, moſt dutifully beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our ſincereſt Congratulations upon the Preſervation of your Sacred Perſon from the horrid Attempt to which it has been lately expoſed, and which threatened Deſtruction to yourſelf, and to the Peace and Joy of all your Subjects.

We humbly pray, that your Sacred Majeſty will be pleaſed to accept of our ardent Wiſhes, that you and every Branch of your Royal Family may long enjoy the Bleſſings of Health, and that the great Diſpoſer of Life and Death may keep both your Majeſty and them under His Divine Protection.

Given under our Common Seal the Twenty-ninth Day of Auguſt, in the Twenty-ſixth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Wigan, in the County of Lancaſter, in Common Hall aſſembled.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Wigan, in the County of Lancaſter, in Common Hall aſſembled, beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere Congratulations upon your Majeſty's Eſcape from the late deſperate Attack upon your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, and to aſſure your Majeſty of our moſt cordial Reſpect for the many eminent Virtues which have adorned your Majeſty's Life.

We earneſtly pray, that the Hand of Heaven may continue to protect you our moſt gracious Sovereign, your amiable Conſort our beloved Queen, and all your Royal Offspring; and that it may ſecure to your Majeſty and them, Health, Content, and long Life.

Given under our Common Seal, at the New Town Hall in Wigan, the Fourth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, 1786.

Robert [illegible], Mayor.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Angleſea, aſſembled at the Town of Beaumaris in the ſaid County, the Twenty-ninth Day of Auguſt, 1786, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the late Attack made on your Royal Perſon.

We feel, in common with the Reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects, the Bleſſings they enjoy under the preſent happy Government, and under your Majeſty's Care and Protection; and we ſincerely hope that the Divine Providence, which has in the late Inſtance preſerved your Majeſty's Life againſt the Danger which threatened it, may extend to your Majeſty an uninterrupted Series of Health and Happineſs; and that your Majeſty, and your Deſcendants, may ever continue to reign in the Hearts of a free, loyal, and united People.

[Signed by 22 Perſons.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury for the County Palatine of Cheſter, aſſembled at the Aſſizes for the ſaid County, the Sixth Day of September, 1786.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury for the County Palatine of Cheſter, beg Leave to offer our ſincere Congratulations to your Majeſty, upon your providential Eſcape from the Danger which lately threatened your Royal Perſon.

Truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, and convinced that the Happineſs of your Majeſty and your People is inſeparable, we fervently pray for the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life, and that you may long continue to reign in the Hearts of a free and loyal People.

[Signed by 20 Perſons.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the Borough of Ripon, in Common Hall aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the Borough of Ripon, in the County of York, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and with all Humility preſent our united and ſincere Congratulations upon your Majeſty's late happy and moſt important Deliverance.

We moſt humbly thank the Omnipotent and Supreme Ruler of all Events, for reſtraining the Hand of Violence which was lifted up againſt your Sacred Life; and whilſt we give Way to our Joy on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape, we feel happy in the Conviction, that ſo univerſal is the Attachment of our Fellow Subjects to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, that no Idea injurious to your Majeſty could enter any Mind, which was not through Infirmity become inſenſible to the Dictates of Gratitude and Duty.

We ardently wiſh, that your Majeſty may long continue to reign over a free, happy, and united People.

Given under our Common Seal, this Fourth Day of September, 1786.

By Order,

Peter Taylor, Town Clerk.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Brethren and Capital Burgeſſes of your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Derby, in the County of Derby, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Brethren and Capital Burgeſſes of the ancient Borough of Derby, in Common Council aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our ſincere and hearty Congratulations, on your Majeſty's providential and happy Eſcape from the late Attempt on your Royal Perſon.

And we ſincerely pray, that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous over a free, happy, and united People.

Given under the Common Seal of the Borough of Derby, the Twenty-ninth Day of Auguſt, 1786.

William Edwards, Mayor.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the antient Borough of Wilton, in the County of Wilts, moſt humbly offer to your Majeſty our dutiful Congratulations on your Eſcape from the Danger of the late frantic Attack upon your Majeſty's Royal Perſon.

Deeply ſenſible of our Happineſs, we beſeech the Divine Providence to continue to watch over your Majeſty, and thereby preſerve to a grateful People the ineſtimable Bleſſing of your Majeſty's benign and paternal Government.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the ſaid Borough, this Fourth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, 1786, and in the Twenty ſixth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.
